

A summery and carefree
adventure

I Never Win Anything

EVELIEN DE VIEGER & RUTH DE JAEGER

Nelle is a dreamer. She likes school, but Mr Bart less so. In turn, the school teacher isn't crazy about children. Nelle's parents don't have a lot of money, but by chance Nelle is able to buy a ticket for the school raffle. The most incredible thing happens: Nelle wins the first prize, a trip to a sun-drenched island for her and her parents. They feel on top of the world and soon make friends with the hotel owners and their daughter. The family are having the time of their life, and even the unexpected arrival of teacher Bart can't ruin the holiday.

Instant fun. A perfect holiday read.

DE MORGEN

Evelien De Vlieger's 'I Never Win Anything' is an enjoyable summer story full of little adventures that prove that it doesn't take much to be happy, as long as you've got the right mentality. And Nelle and her parents have that in abundance! De Vlieger has lots of fun with her quirky characters, and the humorous and light-hearted text meets its match in Ruth De Jaeger's dynamic and vivid illustrations. 'I Never Win Anything' is a warm feel-good story for young readers.

Deliciously silly, with beautiful, playful and dynamic illustrations

AUTHORS

Evelien De Vlieger (b. 1969) is a writer and translator. She creates fictional worlds that feel familiar but are always unpredictable, that captivate without being melodramatic. She writes quirky stories set in the here and now, with plenty of subtle humour. Her oeuvre ranges from nonfiction and picture books to stories for beginning readers and YA novels. Photo © Iris Beeckman Ruth De Jaeger (b. 1993) has a fun and almost naïve drawing style, which is full of colour and movement. Her hand-painted illustrations play with perspective and proportion and often take their inspiration from nature. Photo © Emma Vos
