

An indispensable companion to Dutch-language children's books

The Book of Children's Books

VEERLE VANDEN BOSCH & MIRJAM NOORDUIJN

'The Book of Children's Books' will introduce you to the wealth of literature written in Dutch for children and young adults, within the context of the international world of books for readers young and old. It's a kaleidoscopic book for reading, looking at and leafing through, for all readers who know how it feels to be a child, and a source of information and inspiration for publishers, booksellers, librarians, teachers – and for everyone else who is passionate about books.

A parade of talent. What a breath of fresh air.

DE MORGEN

Starting from 50 essential Dutch-language books, it highlights 50 writers, 25 illustrators and 25 themes, with the help of 1001 titles for readers of all ages, from Flanders, the Netherlands and beyond. It is a magnificent treasury of information and a network full of links and unexpected connections.

'The Book of Children's Books' was commissioned by Bart Moeyaert, artistic director of the Flemish-Dutch guest-of-honour programme at the Frankfurt Book Fair 2016. It was published in Dutch in the Low Countries, where it received wide critical acclaim, and also in English, as a promotional tool for Flanders Literature and the Dutch Foundation for Literature.

Beautifully designed reference book

VPRO GIDS

AUTHORS

Veerle Vanden Bosch (b. 1969) is a journalist and has been the head of the literature section at Flemish newspaper De Standaard since 2011. She writes about pretty much everything, but YA literature is one of her big loves. Mirjam Noorduijn (b. 1961) studied English language and literature at the University of Leiden. Since 2003 she has worked as a freelance journalist and book critic for publications including NRC Handelsblad. She is also a regular on literary juries and gives presentations.

ORIGINAL TITLE Het boekenboek (2016, Leopold, 334 pp.)

FORMAT 230x185

TRANSLATION RIGHTS Lucienne van der Leijde
- l.van.der.leijde@singeluitgeverijen.nl

TRANSLATION GRANTS Lien Devos - lien.d@flandersliterature.be